SHARP ADVANCES IN GENERAL LIST

Stock Gains Average Quarter to Half Per Cent in Strong Market.

Twenty-five shares of the Phoenix Fire Insurance Company, of New York, stock sold at 301, and ninety shares at 300½ at Wednesday's auction of securities. These are the lowest prices at which this stock has sold at public sale since the San Francisco fire, previous to which the high price was 358. During 1905 there was not public sale of this stock.

A good daal is again heard about the alleged discrimination by the banks sgainst certain "industrial" collateral. The weakness in some of these issues is said to be due to notification by the banks that the substitution of more desirable collateral would be agreeable.
